Welcome Back

We hope you all had a wonderful holiday and let's hope the sun shines a little bit more as we have a very busy 6^{1/2} weeks until the end of our school year.

Family Worship

This weeks' Family Worship will be taken by Andy Keely. Andy is the Head of St Chad's Joint Faith School. We also have a special birthday to celebrate this week, please come along and join us and stay for tea and coffee afterwards.

Just to remind you that next weeks Family Worship will feature photographs of the Year 5's recent Menai experience.

Drumming lessons

There will be drumming lessons this week.

Uniform Order

Gill is currently taking orders for school uniform. If you would like to order any uniform, please could you have your order to Gill by no later than 16th June 2010.

Gill now has 1 of each size of the waterproof fleeces for you to try on your child. They are proving very popular and cost just £20 each which we feel is very good value for money.

River of Life

The River of Life fundraising event takes place on Friday July 9th 2010 at the Pavillions. This is a wonderful opportunity to have some fun and at the same time raise some more money for the boys' home in Uganda. Doors open at 7.30pm. Tickets are available from Church or from Lorraine Mason. Tel 01928 719960. Lorraine will be available after Family Worship tomorrow with tickets.

Contributions of raffle prizes welcome!!

This promises to be a fun evening where everyone is welcome.

Stranger Danger

Claire Wright (School Cook)

Congratulations to our School Cook Claire who married Steve Wright on 29th May 2010. They both had a wonderful day, Claire looked absolutely beautiful she looked so different from her white overall, black hat and short stripy socks!!!! I know you would like to wish them both the very best for their new married life.

Bikes!!

We continue to encourage our children to ride their bikes to school, but could we just remind them that they must not be ridden on the school premises or on the pavement outside of school as this causes a danger to other children and parents.

St Bert's Café Church

This Sunday is the St Bert's Café Church (held every third Sunday in the month) at St Bert's School. This is an informal, friendly church service ideally suited for families with small children. Start time is 11.15am with coffee on arrival. Everyone welcome!!
